

Martin: I think now is really the moment to tell you something... We went to Saint-Sulpice, the other day. And we travelled by boat, and the boat had this big...

Laura: Rainbow.

M: ... Yes! Exactly. The rainbow was colorful. And first we thought it was a gay boat, but then realized they were just decorating the boat with those colors. We were there and were watching the...

L: Little children.

M: Yes. And they were playing a game. And we tried to find out how this game...

L: Compresses.

M: Yes, compresses the tension of the people... and brings everyone together.

L: Yes.

M: So we were observing and seeing that one...

L: Stone.

M: Yes! It was in the middle of the playground and suddenly one child took the stone and realized it was...

L: Tickling.

M: Yes. It was tickling... the stone... no, the child. And the stone was like what you can buy in the...

L: Past.

M: Yes! What we could buy before but not anymore. So the boy was tickling the stone. There was loud laughing and suddenly all the other people started to...

L: Get mad.

M: Yes, exactly. They got completely mad. And we were all...

L: Falling in love.

M: Yeah! Falling in love and these emotions were put together and this compressure... when everything is together, like what happens to colors, is getting...

L: Stiff... Martin, can I interrupt you for a moment?

M: Yes.

L: Because, as I listen to you I am also having thoughts and I completely...

M: Swim.

L: Yeah, I completely swim in some kind of dark waters. It's like I know I am moving, but I don't see anything. Something in my...

M: Aura.

L: Yes, something in my aura is completely awake. I can't see anything but I still follow some path. Which is actually not real, it is all...

M: Flat.

L: Yeah, it's all flat. Just one level. So I miss some kind of...

M: Project.

L: Yes, I miss this kind of project where you can fully engage all senses, including watching as well. I don't mean that you should...

M: Change.

L: Yeah, I don't mean you should change anything. Just somehow...

M: Vote.

L: Yeaaaah, vote for a new kind of alternative, make a choice... Otherwise it's just like...

M: Education.

L: Yeah, otherwise it's just like education that you go through. You accept what is being said and the way it is said without really reflecting about it. Then you decide where you'll go next and you will...

M: Forget.

L: Yes exactly... Hopefully you'll forget everything. That's it, you can now continue, I just wanted to say that.
